

Mission Statement

Langley Hospice Society, a community-based, non-profit organization, provides compassionate support to help people live with dignity and hope while coping with grief and the end of life.

"You matter because of who you are. You matter to the last moment of your life, and we will do all we can not only to help you die peacefully, but also to live until you die."

Who We Are...
What We Do

The Langley Hospice Society is...

- ♥ a community-based non-profit charitable organization established in 1983.
- ♥ committed to providing emotional, practical and social support for people who are living with a terminal illness, their family and friends throughout the last stage of illness, at the time of death and bereavement.
- ♥ funded through general donations, fund-raising events, memorial and in honor gifts, planned giving, grants, Second Story Treasures Thrift Store, BC Gaming, United Way and a service contract with Fraser Health. There are no fees for our programs or services.

Hospice is a philosophy of care that:

- ♥ provides sensitivity and support for individuals experiencing a terminal illness.
- ♥ emphasizes comfort, dignity and quality of life.
- ♥ affirms life and neither hastens nor postpones death.
- ♥ is available to patients and their families at home, in hospital, in hospice residence or community care facility.

The Langley Hospice Society offers...

- ♥ Palliative support for people facing a life-threatening illness
- ♥ Anticipated, early and ongoing adult grief support
- ♥ Child and teen grief support
- ♥ Mail outreach bereavement support
- ♥ Volunteer training program
- ♥ Public education
- ♥ Hospice library
- ♥ Seasonal holiday services
